ROOTED

From the earth, stories emerge. At the table, memories are passed down from generation to generation. Rooted is born from this encounter: the strength of Portuguese origins reimagined with a contemporary language.

Each piece carries within itself the refined simplicity of design and the timeless sophistication of a good presence. More than ceramics, it is a gesture of connection to the past, to sharing and to the roots that sustain us.

Rooted is an invitation to create moments that become heritage: because everything that is deeply rooted endures.
